THE HON'BLE HIGH COURT HAS PASSED THE FOLLOWING ORDER ON 11.11.2026.

ORAL ORDER

"Heard the learned Senior counsel for the petitioners and the learned Additional SPP for Respondent No.1 and the learned counsel for Respondents No.3.

2. The Coordinate Bench of this Court on 13.08.2026 has passed the order and relevant portion of the order reads as under:-
"Both the husband and the wife are in prison. Therefore, on the undertaking of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners, which is on instructions, I deem it appropriate not to release both, but the wife from the custody so that the wife would co-operate with the Investigating Officer to sell the commodities or otherwise that is lying in the garden or the properties of the petitioners/accused and return the amount in a phased manner.
The learned State Public Prosecutor submits that the State would open an account for such deposit of the money that belongs to all those depositors, who are involved in the business with the petitioners."
3. Thereafter, the order dated 02.09.2026 the paragraphs No.2 and 3 read as under:-
"2. The wife was released from prison for a particular purpose. Learned State Public Prosecutor - 1 submits that the order quoted supra needs clarification.
3. It is thus, clarified that the wife wants to sell the properties within the next one week and deposit the amount into the account opened by the competent authority."
4. Thereafter, on 18.09.2026 this Court passed the order as under:
"Petitioner No.2 is released in terms of the order dated 13.08.2026 to facilitate the petitioner to sell the goods and to repay the amount to the persons who have invested the amount with the petitioners. So far the goods are not yet sold and amount is not repaid to the investors.
Learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the goods are locked by the Police as such, Petitioner No. 2 is not able to sell the goods.
Learned SPP would submit that in case there are genuine buyers, the lock will be opened in the presence of the Assistant Commissioner, goods will be sold and the amount will be deposited before the Jurisdictional Trial Court and thereafter, the appropriate steps will be taken pursuant to the orders to be passed by the Trial Court.
Considering the submission, the Court is of the view that Petitioner No. 2 need not be detained. The steps shall be taken to sell the goods which are in the custody of the police and the sale proceeds shall be deposited before the jurisdictional Trial Court.
Awaiting response, list on 30.09.2026.
It is made clear that this order will not come in the way of further investigation in the matter."
5. The order dated 07.10.2026 reads as under:-
"Memo is filed seeking permission of the Court to retire from the case.
2. Sri Vinod Kumar M, learned counsel is permitted to retire as Sri S G Lokesh, learned counsel has entered appearance.
3. Registry is directed to delete the name of Sri Vinod Kumar M and show the name of Sri S G Lokesh, as learned counsel appearing for the petitioner in the cause list.
4. Heard learned Senior counsel appearing for the petitioners, learned Additional SPP for Respondent No.1. There is no representation on behalf of Respondent No.2.
5. The application is filed under Section 528 of The Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 (BNSS) seeking a direction to the Assistant Commissioner, Doddaballapura to carry out sale of the goods and materials seized by Respondent No.1 in Crime No.134/2026 in respect of which Property Forms (PF) have been drawn.
6. Learned predecessor of this Court vide order dated 13.08.2026 has passed the following order:
"The petitioners are accused Nos.1 and 2 alleged of offences punishable under the Buds Act and is alleged to have hoodwinked 12,800 people.
The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submit that they are ready and willing to make good the amounts that they have received from all those people. But, the husband and wife both of them are taken into custody and if they remain in custody, it is his submission that the amount cannot be returned to those investors, as it would become difficult for selling of the properties/goods.
Both the husband and the wife are in prison. Therefore, on the undertaking of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners, which is on instructions, I deem it appropriate not to release both, but the wife from the custody so that the wife would co-operate with the Investigating Officer to sell the commodities or otherwise that is lying in the garden or the properties of the petitioners/accused and return the amount in a phased manner.
The learned State Public Prosecutor submits that the State would open an account for such deposit of the money that belongs to all those depositors, who are involved in the business with the petitioners.
In that light, the second petitioner/accused No.2 shall be released from prison, subject to condition that she would cooperate with the Investigating Officer to get the money deposited into the account that is to be created for the purpose of the deposit of those funds.
In the event non-co-operation from the wife, appropriate orders would be passed at the hands of this Court.
I deem it appropriate to grant the second petitioner interim bail for a period of three weeks from today. The grant of this interim bail will not come in the way of the first petitioner seeking his release from prison on grant of bail.
List this matter on 03.09.2026.
Hand delivery of the order is permitted.
7. The co-ordinate bench of this Court was of the view that sale of the goods would be in the interest of the complainant and other persons who have allegedly invested the amount.
8. It is also submitted that the goods seized are perishable goods and will lose the value over a period of time.
9. Learned Additional SPP would submit that in case the goods are sold and amount is deposited before the jurisdictional Court, thereafter the same can be released in favour of the persons based on their credentials/entitlements in accordance with law.
10. The Court after going through the contents of the complaint, application and also the earlier order dated 13.08.2026 of this Court, is of the view that there has to be appropriate orders to sell the goods which are seized and listed in proper Forms No.124 to 131 of 2026. The sale is very much required, as admittedly the goods seized are perishable goods.
11. It is also noticed that the respondent/State has also evaluated the value of the goods seized.
12. The jurisdictional Assistant Commissioner shall oversee the process of auction sale.
13. Before conducting the auction sale, there shall be paper publication in Samyukta Karnataka - local Kannada daily news paper, Bengaluru Edition advertising the auction of goods seized.
14. The paper publication shall disclose the list of goods seized as per Property Form and the value of the goods.
15. The paper publication shall also disclose the date, venue and time of auction.
16. The news paper publication shall also refer to this order and case number.
17. The auction sale shall be held at 11 a.m. on 15.10.2026 at the godown where the goods are stored.
18. The auction sale shall be on as is where is basis.
19. The minimum price shall be disclosed in the paper publication and same shall be as reflected in the Property Forms referred to above.
20. The auction sale proceeds shall be credited before the jurisdictional Court where the case is pending.
21. The paper publication shall be taken out on or before 10.10.2026.
22. The auctioned goods will be released to the successful bidder only after the amount is deposited.
23. The successful bid by itself will not confer a right over the properties auctioned.
24. The Court reserves the right to cancel the auction if justifiable reasons are found.
25. I.A. 2/2026 is allowed.
26. Learned Additional SPP shall communicate the order to the jurisdictional Assistant Commissioner.
27. Interim order granted earlier if any, is extended till the next date of hearing.
28. List on 17.10.2026."
6. However, the auction was not conducted on 15.10.2026 as ordered. Later, the case was listed on 09.10.2026 and the court passed the following order:-
"This Court vide order dated 07.10.2026 has permitted the auction sale of the properties.
2. An application is filed stating that certain Form Numbers have not been mentioned in the said order. Hence, application is filed to correct the said order and incorporate the proper Forms Numbers as stated in the application.
3. Considering the submission and noticing the requirement, application is allowed.
4. In the order dated 07.10.2026 in addition to the Form numbers referred to, the following Form Numbers 118/2026, 119/2026, 120/2026, 121/2026 and 123/2026 shall also be read as part of the said order.
5. It is also clarified that in the paper publication ordered in terms of order dated 07.10.2026, the value of the goods as reflected in Property Forms shall be specified.
6. The learned Additional SPP shall communicate both orders to the jurisdictional Assistant Commissioner.
7. List on 17.10.2026."
7. Then on 17.10.2026 the matter was listed pursuant to an application by Respondent No.3 who wanted to come on record and the application was allowed and considering the submissions made, the following order was passed on 17.10.2026.
"The application at I.A. No.3 to implead the Proposed Respondent No.3 is allowed as Proposed Respondent No.3 claims to the Officer under the Karnataka Protection of Interest of Depositors in Financial Establishments Act, 2004 ('KPID Act'). The petitioner shall carry out the amendment.
2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners, learned Additional SPP and the learned counsel for the Respondent No.3. The coordinate Bench of this Court had passed an order to auction the property to ensure that the value of the property seized by the police is not diminished as the articles are perishable. Thereafter, the third respondent has moved the application to come on record on the premise that the provisions of the aforementioned Act are applicable. It is urged that the auction has to be carried out under the provisions of the KPID Act.
3. There is no dispute that the goods are perishable.
4. The previous Bench of this Court has already passed an order to auction the properties.
5. It is also noticed that the previous Bench of this Court had directed the Assistant Commissioner to auction the property. The Assistant Commissioner is the officer under the KPID Act.
6. However, materials are not placed to take a view that the standard operating procedure to evaluate the goods seized were followed.
7. To ensure transparency and fair valuation, the Court is the view that the new valuation shall be carried out by the third respondent in accordance with the Standard Operating Procedure for violation-2023 which is said to be applicable.
8. There is no need to transfer the seized goods/articles from the custody of the police.
9. The third respondent is permitted to carry out the valuation. The valuation report shall be submitted to the Court before 28.10.2026.
10. The presence of the third respondent Assistant Commissioner is dispensed with.
11. Interim order granted earlier is extended till the next date of hearing.
List on 28.10.2026."
8. The case was listed on 28.10.2026 and the Court directed valuation of the perishable articles at the earliest and now the report is filed stating that the value of the perishable articles is Rs.49,000/-. The report would also indicate that the dry fruits which have been examined by the valuer are not in good condition.
9. Considering the fact that some of the goods seized are perishable and are losing its value, the Court is of the view that steps should be taken to auction the properties at the earliest.
10. The valuation fixed by the Investigating Officer at the time of seizing the goods shall be taken as the base price and auction shall be conducted.
11. The bid amount in the auction shall be placed before the Court for further orders.
i) The auction shall be held on 16.11.2026 at 11 a.m.
ii) The paper publication relating to auction shall be in Samyukta Karnataka. The publication shall be on or before 13.11.2026.
iii) It is submitted at the Bar that the petitioner will bear the expenditure of paper publication.
iv) All other conditions relating to auction notice incorporated in the order dated 07.10.2026 are applicable to the auction scheduled on 16.11.2026.
v) The auction notice shall also incorporate a clause that any prospective bidder can inspect the goods before the auction date.
vi) The third respondent shall supervise and oversee the auction proceedings.
vii) Registry shall furnish the draft publication immediately.
viii) The Investigating Officer shall cooperate with the 3rd respondent to ensure there is a proper auction of the properties seized.
ix) The investigating officer shall share the valuation report/or other materials which formed the basis for the valuation, with the third respondent.
List this matter on 17.11.2026.
Interim order granted earlier is extended till the next date of hearing."

THE AUCTION SALE SHALL BE HELD ON 16.11.2026 AT 11 A.M.

ISSUED UNDER MY HAND AND THE SEAL OF THIS COURT THIS THE 11TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 2026.
